

Selecting an Outdoor Lighting Company

Your investment in an exterior lighting system should only be made once. The following is a tip that will help you make an informed decision when selecting an exterior lighting company.

2. YEARS IN BUSINESS. You will be relying on this company to add, revise, and maintain your lighting system. Will they be in operation 2, 10, or 20 years from now? We average two or three calls per week from homeowners requesting maintenance on their low voltage or line voltage lighting systems that were installed by companies that have gone out of business. A properly designed, installed, and maintained illumination system should provide you with many years of enjoyment. Preserve your investment by selecting a lighting company that will be available to respond to your lighting needs now and in the future.
